NEW CELL HOUSE FOR PRISONERS OF CITY IS PLANNED

Patrol House May be Converted
For That Purpose
This Year.

Stables, Kitchen and Dining Room in Rear.

PRESENT JAIL IS INADEQUATE.

City Jailor Clark in his annual report complains of the inadequate quarters for city prisoners in the cell house beneath the city hall, and since the place is necessarily not hygienic and there is a question about the right of the city to incarcerate prisoners in such a place before trial, members of the general council are considering some changes on the city property in the block between Kentucky avenue and Washington street and Fourth and Third streets, to make room for a new cell house, dining room and kitchen, and stable for the horses of the police and street departments.

The city hall occupies the corner at Fourth street and Kentucky avenue and the new Central fire station the east end of the property facing Kentucky avenue. The patrol house stands back from the street between the two. Behind all three runs an alley, and across the alley from the fire station and patrol house is an array of tumbledown frame sheds, belonging to the city, and a menace to the whole center of the city. The best plan seems to be to put a second story on the patrol house and convert it into a cell house, using the upstairs for women and the downstairs for men. Across the alley then could be built a brick stable and adjoining it a kitchen, which the city must provide for the jailer, and the jail dining room.

Favors Tent Colony.
Many city reports are coming in. The city physician reports that there were 88 small pox patients during the year. He attended 225 charity patients at the city hospital and made 1,460 charity visits. He joins the city health department in recommending the tuberculosis tent colony.

The city judge reports that he issued about 2,500 warrants, about 2,000 of which were served. About 200 of these cases were felonies, and about 7,000 or 8,000 were collected in fines. He asks for a stenographer and a new chair for the bench.

Burglars Kill Nurse.
Millbrook, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Three burglars this morning choked a nurse girl to death at the home of Barnes Compton, a financier, and escaped with $10,000 in silverware and jewelry.

Mills Tipped for C. B. & Q.
St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 13.—Though there is no official confirmation, it is the general opinion in railroad circles that Darius Mills will succeed George B. Harris as president of the C. B. & Q. Definite action is expected next week when J. J. Hills reaches Chicago.

WANTED—OWNER FOR HOUSE.
Seek to Identify Edifice Which Floated Down River.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 13.—One four-room house, which was dragged out of the Ohio river here yesterday, may be had by its owner upon proper identification. The house came floating down the river yesterday amid great masses of yellow ice. The towboat Tom O'Neill rushed to the rescue, butting through the ice, hooking fast to the bobbing dwelling and safely mooring it at the bank. The house was empty, with not even a set of knife-carved initials to indicate who its owners may be or where it is from.

FROSTBITTEN FINGERS ARE SEVERELY BURNED.

Before Hal Wright, colored, struck a match to light his pipe yesterday afternoon he had three fingers on the injured list, but after his smoke he made an inventory and four fingers were disabled. Wright was brought to the Illinois Central hospital from Fulton suffering with three frostbitten fingers. The digits were saturated with liniment and gauze and cotton wrapped around them. Yesterday afternoon he sauntered around the hospital and thought he would enjoy a smoke. He struck the match to light his pipe, when the fumes from the incense ignited the wrapping. Now his fingers are being treated for frostbite as well as burns, making a unique combination.

J. C. Speight, of Mayfield, Now Tipped for United States Marshal of Western District of Kentucky

Presidential Appointments

The Ladies' Mite society of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in conjunction with the Missionary society, which is holding its services at 2:30 o'clock each afternoon this week.

Tobacco Sales

Marked by spirited bidding that evidenced eagerness among the buyers, a large sale of loose leaf tobacco was held at Bohmer's warehouse this morning, when 27,000 pounds of choice crop were offered and sold. There were no rejections. The highest price brought was $10.15 and the lowest $4.60, averaging $8.11. Farmers were well pleased.

No Weatherman Here

Poor old weatherman. His job at Paducah is but a memory and there is no telling what kind of weather we will be handed from now on unless the nearest weather prophet takes pity on us. Today Mr. Will Wright, cashier at the First National bank, who recently doffed the weatherman's garb, received a letter from S. J. Walz, chief weatherman for this district at Louisville, notifying him that a prophet here is no longer deemed necessary, and he is instructed to pack up all of the instruments and send them to Louisville.

Ice Gorge Miles Long and Fifteen Feet High

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—The ice dam in the Mississippi at Alton broke today and started down the river. It is feared it will crush many boats and play havoc with vessels in the St. Louis harbor. The river is rising a foot an hour. The ferryboat Madison was caught by the ice and sunk. Miles of ice are moving and great damage is feared.

SMEDLEY DOESN'T DESIRE TO QUIT HIS DRUG HABIT

Tells County Physician He Would Rather Go to Penitentiary.

Got His "Dope" Even While in Asylum.

MAKES COMPLETE CONFESSION.

Instead of discontinuing the use of drugs, it has developed that Hiram Smedley, in jail as the result of numerous indictments, has acquired a keener appetite for the drug habit. He has confessed to Dr. L. E. Young, county physician, that he never quit the drug habit, not even while at the insane asylum at Hopkinsville, and declared that he had no intention of quitting. He is such a fiend for the drug that he proposed to dismiss his appeal in the appellate court and lose all hope of freedom rather than take treatment for the appetite.

It has been suspected for many weeks that Smedley had resumed the drug habit. Dr. Young declined to give him treatment for the habit because everybody was permitted to see him and the prisoner was not watched carefully enough to prevent the drug being smuggled to him. Since the change of administration at the county jail, Judge William Reed instructed County Jailor Henry Houser to keep the drug from him.

Last night Smedley was removed from the large cell in the front of the jail to the main corridor. He was permitted to take nothing from his old cell. A short time after being placed away from the cell in which the "dope" was concealed, Smedley realized what his condition would be without the drug. He called Dr. Young and confessed that he had not quit the drug.

Last night he used eight tablets at the rate of five tablets every four hours, which is an increase of one tablet in four hours. He said that while he was in the asylum the drug was smuggled to him by an attaché. When informed that Dr. Young was going to give him treatment for the habit, Smedley revolted and asked that it be delayed for a few days.

Rather than take the treatment for the habit, he said he would have his appeal dismissed in the appellate court and go to the penitentiary when the prisoners, convicted at the present term of court, are sent to Eddyville. Smedley said he would consult his attorneys and Dr. Young promised him he would not begin the treatment until tomorrow.

Dance Friday Night.

A dance in honor of visiting girls in the city will be given at the Three Links building on Friday evening. The dance will be given by the young men.

Magazine Club With Mrs. Fowler.

Mrs. Saunders A. Fowler is the hostess to the Magazine club this afternoon at her home, Edgewood, in the West End. The Magazine to be reported are: Harpers, by Mrs. George Langstaff, Jr., and Mrs. Vernon Blythe. Atlantic Monthly, by Mrs. Hal Corbett. Literary Digest, by Mrs. Victor Voris. Cosmopolitan by Mrs. Armour Gardner.

Value of a Name

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 13.—Will Wood, arrested for throwing a handful of beans in another man's face, gave a flimsy, and forgot the name he gave. As a consequence he was kept in jail two months after the grand jury ordered his release.

DARK HORSE TALK IN

MISSISSIPPI CONTEST

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 13.—Present indications are that a "dark horse" is the only hope of breaking the deadlock in the senatorial contest. Vardaman retains the lead, but has no hope of gaining enough votes to win. Threatening letters, demanding that legislators vote for Vardaman, only increased the bitterness of the opposition.

The Weather

Rain tonight and colder in western portion. Friday probably cloudy and colder with rain in the eastern portion.

Highest temperature today was 62 and the lowest 49.

Illinois: Washington, Jan. 13.—Southwest portions; Friday unsettled, probably snow in northeast.

Cities Organize at Frankfort to Promote Legislation They Need; First Bill Day in the Lower House

Anti-treating. Anti-dog Tax, Anti-saloon Bills Found in the Hopper; Also Two Cent Fare Measure.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13. (Special.)—Mayors and officials of Kentucky cities of the Second class met here and organized an association. James W. Campbell, Jr., of Paducah, was elected secretary.

To Inspect Prisons.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13. (Special.)—Jack Chinn introduced a joint resolution in the house providing for the investigation of the conduct of prisons in the light of former Warden Chinn's charges. The resolution is being prepared for an inquiry into the conduct of insane asylums and other charitable institutions under the board of control. Special attention will be paid to Stanley Milward's part in the affairs. The bill was introduced by Combs, providing for a permanent tax commission.

In the senate the special committee reported as the result of investigation of charges made by Senator Combs, concerning changing of resolution Tuesday, that it was done accidentally by Eli Brown in copying and was not the fault of any senate employees. Senator Watkins introduced a bill, embodying the Kentucky Educational association's idea for the new educational law.

This is the first bill day in the house, with 100 bills. Representative Carter introduced one identical with that of Watkins in the senate. Waggoner introduced another county unit bill like that of last year, and also one to divorce the grocery and saloon business.

Among the bills introduced was one to make treating in a saloon a felony; one by Southall, abolishing the board of control as at present constituted; a bill to repeal the dog tax; and bill, fixing two-cent rate for railroads.

A bill was introduced in the house providing that veterinarians examining dairy herds, be appointed by the county judges instead of the state board of health.

In the Senate.

The chairmanships of the important committees in the senate are as follows: Banks, B. M. Arnett; State university, Claude M. Thomas; Kentucky statutes, Conn Linn; redistricting, J. J. Watkins; sinking fund, A. R. Burnham; rules, Conn Linn; public roads, J. F. Bosworth; railroads, Mark Ryan; insurance, Conn Linn; charitable institutions, E. E. Hogg; labor, R. L. Hubbell; corporations, H. D. Newcomb; courts, J. A. Donaldson; criminal law, N. C. Cureton; judiciary, J. J. Beard; interurban and electric lines, Gus Brown; appropriations, G. T. Pritchard; telephones, G. T. Wyatt; penitentiaries, E. M. Taylor; education, L. W. Arnett; state fair, H. D. Newcomb; religion and morals, Thomas A. Combs; mines, R. M. Salmon; revenue and taxation, L. W. Arnett.

The Rev. Father Major offered prayer when the session of the house began with Speaker Wilson in the chair.

Speaker Wilson announced the appointment of the following assistants in the house: To the doorkeeper, G. A. Hoggard, Moses R. Glenn, James Edwards and Lee Robinson; stenographers, Mrs. Dulin Moss and Miss Maud Applegate; clerk-stenographer, Charles Howes; bill clerk, Albie Melton; mail clerks, George Sutton and Herbert Lackey; messengers, John Newman, Dudley Ragsdale, Harvey Roberts and James Martin; porter, William Wilson.

Mr. Porter offered a resolution calling on the state auditor to furnish a complete list of pro tem. circuit judges appointed during the fiscal years ending June 30, 1908, and June 30, 1909, with the amounts paid out to each judicial district and the total in the state. The resolution was adopted.

A resolution by Mr. George Reid, prohibiting smoking in the house, was adopted.

Coming to Louisville.

Applause greeted the reading of a letter by Clerk Stone from President Buckner, of the Louisville board of trade, urging all the members to attend the banquet in that city Friday night. Extensive preparations have been made by the board of trade to entertain the legislators.

Representative Southall, of Christian county, will introduce a bill, identical with that of Senator Salmon, providing for the abolition of the board of control.

On a motion of Mr. Clay, to reconsider the vote by which smoking was prohibited, the roll was called, resulting in the defeat of the motion to reconsider.

The whole matter was tabled by a standing vote.

FIRE LOSSES IN PADUCAH BELOW STATE AVERAGE

Many Insurance Companies
Resume Their Offices in This City.

Report of Fire Chief is Pleasing News.

WILL NOT LOWER THE RATES.

Fire losses in Paducah have decreased so in the last few years that some of the companies, who were burned out frequently and withdrew from writing business in the city, are again opening offices. The report of Fire Chief Wood for 1909 is the best made in many years, and will be the means of giving Paducah a good reputation with the fire insurance companies again. The decreased death rate will also place the city in favorable standing with the life insurance companies.

When speaking of the fire loss in the city, Mr. M. R. Smith, who is the insurance inspector for western Kentucky, said: "The showing made by Paducah for last year is creditable, and shows that the fire department is well equipped to handle the fires. The fire loss, which is shown to be $43,950 by the report, is unusually small for Paducah, and will compare favorably with any city in the state. Owensboro is the next largest city in my district, and last year that city suffered a fire loss of several hundred thousand dollars."

In answer to a question concerning a possibility of a reduction in the fire insurance rate on account of the small loss, Mr. Smith thought it would not have any effect for the present. "The fire losses on the companies have been so heavy that I do not look for any decrease in the rate. The companies are only getting back what they have lost in previous years."

Mr. Smith has not received the report from other cities in the state regarding the fire losses, and for several weeks it cannot be told exactly what a good showing was made. As soon as possible the figures will be tabulated and sent over the state. At present there are about 50 insurance companies writing policies in the city. Recently some of the strongest companies have resumed the writing of policies, owing to the reduction of the fire losses. The premiums for the year 1908 amounted to $142,000, and when last year's figures are collected an increase is expected to be shown.

Plenty of Coal Here.

All the coal dealers are well supplied with coal now, as the moderation in weather has made it possible for the railroads to haul the coal from the mines. Plenty of coal is en route to the local dealers, while the yards are filled sufficiently to care for the needs of the people.

Sack of Corn Stolen.

An unknown negro thief entered the stables back of the Jake Biederman Grocery company's store, Seventh and Washington streets, last night about 9 o'clock and made away with a sack of corn. Lem Wetherington, a suspect, was arrested at the home of "Goldtooth Annie," a short distance away, by Patrolmen Dunnaway and Garrett, but was dismissed, as there was no evidence to show that he was the guilty man.

Three of Crew Are Scalded.

Three men were injured when a locomotive stalled in a tunnel near West Point yesterday afternoon. The hissing steam caught the members of the crew who were peering in the tunnel, and could not crawl out for some time. Engineer L. D. Smith, Fireman W. V. Dolan and Brakeman Ike Hansboro, colored, sustained burns on the face, neck and right hands. The members of the crew were taken to Louisville for treatment. The engine was pulling freight train No. 151, of the Illinois Central railroad, and had left Louisville for Paducah.

INGLESIDE REBEKAHS

INSTALL NEW OFFICERS.

Officers of the Ingleside lodge of Rebekahs No. 17, were installed last night at the lodge room in the Three Links building. A large audience was present at the ceremonies, when the new officers took charge. The officers installed are: Miss Kate Block, noble grand; Mrs. Clara Maxwell, vice grand; Mrs. May Block, warden; Miss Kettler, conductor; Mrs. Ida McKinney, right support to noble grand; Miss Lena Walker, left support to noble grand; Mrs. Lee, right support to vice grand; Mrs. W. H. Force, left support to vice grand; Mrs. Lizzie Beckenbach, inside guard; John Block, outside guard; Carrie Schroder, chaplain; Lena Elfinger, treasurer, and Mattie Whitmer, secretary.

VESSEL BREAKS IN TWO AND SINKS

ONLY ONE SURVIVOR OUT OF CREW OF THIRTY—FLOAT-ING BOTTLE FOUND.

Marshfield, Ore., Jan. 13.—Rushing through a heavy fog in response to a wireless appeal, the steamship Queen today stands near the wreck of the Southern Pacific steamer, Ozama, which broke in two in North Spit Coos bay yesterday. Twenty-nine of the crew of thirty are believed to be drowned. Engineer Harry Kentzell is in a local hospital after being washed ashore unconscious. He will recover. Early today a body washed ashore, which leads the life savers to believe there is no hope of survivors. Kentzell says the boilers were torn from the foundations and the vessel's bottom was torn out by the pounding of the sea.

Engineer Kentzell, who is semi-delirious, declares there is a slight possibility that Captain Duggan and Harold Mills, son of the owner of the vessel, who were lashed to the rigging, may be rescued, though they probably are frozen to death.

Bottle Is Found.

New Orleans, Jan. 13.—A bottle containing a message, dated December 23, was found today. It says the Norwegian ship Farsund is drifting uncontrolled. The crew of nineteen is helpless and starving. The location is not given. The bottle was found on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

RED MEN WILL INSTALL OFFICERS FRIDAY NIGHT.

The Red Men will install officers tomorrow night. Every lodge member attending is expected to take a pound of some digestible article and a full 16 ounces. A pound party will be enjoyed after the installation.

HOME LAUNDRY HAS SMALL BLAZE THIS MORNING.

Clothes in the drier at the Home laundry on South Third street caught fire this morning at 6:30 o'clock, and damage to the extent of $50 was done. It is not known how the clothes caught fire, but it is presumed that the heat from the drier started the blaze. Hoose company No. 1 and truck company No. 4 responded to the alarm and extinguished it with the chemical engine. Overalls were in the drier at the time of the fire.

PAULHAN NEARLY MEETS HIS DEATH

BROKE HIGH RECORD AND WON
SMALL FORTUNE FOR A FRIEND.

Los Angeles, Jan. 13.—It was learned that Paulhan had a narrow escape from death when making the record high flight yesterday. He descended so rapidly his engine failed to feed. He shut off the engine, and glided safely to the earth by starting the engine again just before he reached the ground. Paulhan's record was officially announced as 5,000 feet. Dick Ferris, promoter of the meet, won $4,000 and a two-carat diamond from Vandermaelen, the South African diamond king, who wagered that Paulhan would not beat Latham's record.

A Promise To Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire Insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

Some fast and exciting sport was furnished the fans last night with the double-header in the city basketball league. In a furious game the C. C. & W. five, pennant winners last year, started the season with a clean record by defeating the D. A. D. team 11 to 9. The second game was not close, as the Elks gained an easy victory from the Knights of Columbus by a score of 30 to 3.

The game between the C. C. & W. and the D. A. D. teams was the whole show and it was played with all the spirit of intense rivalry. When time ended at the second half the score was a tie, 9-9. Then it was played off, and for three minutes the players played desperately. Finally R. Fisher made a lucky toss of a field goal and victory fell on the shoulders of the C. C. & W.

During the first half the D. A. D. boys had the game by a score of 6 to 4, and exhibited as pretty team work as ever was shown on a Paducah floor. However, after the humiliation, the Chess five came back stronger, and broke up the pretty team work. They tied the score and for a few minutes victory vacillated between the two teams until the winning basket was tossed. Bagby for the D. A. D. team tossed five fouls. Puryear for the Chess team pitched only one foul. Field goals were: Sights, Singleton, W. Fisher, Elliott and Puryear, two.

Second Game.
The Elks outclassed the K. C. lads and secured an easy victory. The score at the end of the first half stood 13 to 1. The Elks will give other teams trouble with a little more practice and more systematic playing. The players are speedy. Cox led in tossing baskets, as he secured six. The teams lined up: C. C. & W.—R. Fisher, center; Puryear and Sights forwards; St. John and Singleton, guards. D. A. D.—Shelton, center; Elliott and Bagby, forwards; Terrell and W. Fisher, guards. K. of C.—J. Fisher, center; Mulvin, Henry and Gockel, forwards; Donagan and Donovan, guards. Elks—Cox, center; Goodman and Sutton, forwards; Johnson and Henneberger, guards. Officials—Lyon, referee; Hille, umpire; Davis, timekeeper; Robertson, scorer.

Fouls.
The people want clean basketball, and any unnecessarily rough playing or fouling should be stopped, even by the drastic measure of removing the guilty players from the game. Basketball should not be made a prize fight.

The large crowd out last night is evidence that the indoor sport is as popular as it was last year.

The C. C. & W. team will have a hard time maintaining a perfect record this season. Every team is laying it up for the Chess lads.

The D. A. D. boys showed splendid team work and they will be a factor in the race.

The C. C. & W. team did not do its best playing until the second half, as the players seemed confused at the fast start of the Dads.

ILLINOIS CHARTER GRANTED.

Eldorado, Ill., Jan. 12.—A charter was granted authorizing the construction of a road from Murphysboro, Ill., through the counties of Jackson, Williamson, Saline, Gallatin and White to the Wabash river. Another charter is under process of organization to extend from Mount Vernon, Ind., to the Wabash river, the eastern terminus of the Egyptian Tracton company, which will connect the McKinley system at Murphysboro with the Evansville & Eastern railway, which is extending its line into Louisville, thus connecting by trolley, St. Louis, Eldorado and Louisville. It is understood, unofficially, that considerable Indiana capital is behind this project, although the local officials refuse to confirm the report that either the McGowan, of Indiana, or McKinley are interested.

Officers of the company will be located at Eldorado, and the consulting engineer will be located at Mount Vernon, Ind. Officers: President, G. C. Leggett, Winchester, Ind.; vice-president, J. W. Murphy, Eldorado, Ill.; treasurer, J. D. Slagton, Texas City; secretary, G. B. K. Hexson, Chicago; counsel, C. D. Sullivan, Harrisburg, Ill.

SUSPEND ROCK ISLAND BROKERS

INFRACTIONS OF SUSPENDED MEMBERS NOT SERIOUS.

Flurry Was Caused, Is Belief, By Failure to Make "Match Sale," Thereby Threatening Corner.

DENIED PRIVILEGES 60 DAYS

New York, Jan. 13.—Simeon B. Chapin, head of the New York and Chicago firm of S. B. Chapin & company, was suspended from the privileges of the New York Stock Exchange for a period of sixty days, for participation in the Rock Island fiasco of Dec. 21, last, when alleged ill-managed manipulation sent the common shares of the Rock Island company from 50 to 81 and back again in a period of twelve minutes. F. D. Countiss, one of Mr. Chapin's partners and the only other board member of the firm, was suspended at the same time for thirty days.

Notwithstanding all the recent rumors concerning the Rock Island deal, involving the name of Daniel G. Reid, chairman of the board of directors of the Rock Island company, for whom, it is said, Chapin & company, executed their buying orders, the verdict of the stock exchange governors indicates that the infractions of the suspended members were not regarded very seriously.

They were found guilty, as an-

A WOMAN DOCTOR

Was Quick to See That Coffee Was Doing the Mischief.

A lady tells of a bad case of coffee poisoning and tells it in a way so simple and straightforward that literary skill could not improve it. "I had neuralgic headaches for 12 years," she says, "and suffered untold agony. When I first began to have them I weighed 140 pounds, but they brought me down to 110. I went to many doctors and they gave me only temporary relief. So I suffered on, till one day a woman doctor told me to use Postum. She said I looked like I was coffee poisoned.

"So I began to drink Postum and I gained 15 pounds in the first few weeks and continued to gain, but not so fast as at first. My headaches began to leave me after I had used Postum about two weeks—long enough to get the coffee poison out of my system.

"Since I began to use Postum I can gladly say that I never know what a neuralgic headache is like any more, and it was nothing but Postum that made me well. Before I used Postum I never went out alone I would get bewildered and would not know which way to turn. Now I go alone and my head is as clear as a bell. My brain and nerves are stronger than they have been for years."

"Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. 'There's a Reason.'"

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

nounced of "acts detrimental to the welfare of the exchange," for which the constitution of the exchange prescribes suspension of not more than one year. Contrary to general expectations, no other members of the exchange are to be punished, though it is known that the investigation of the special committee appointed by the governors brought out facts supposed to have involved several other firms.

Match Sale Balked.
The sessions of the investigating committee were executive, and the inside of the entire transaction is thus kept from the general public. As Wall Street has analyzed the situation, however, S. B. Chapin & company, acted for Mr. Reid or others in the purchase of Rock Island stock, while a looked for selling order was not forthcoming, thus nipping an intended "match sale" which would have threatened a corner.

The firm of S. B. Chapin & company was organized in the latter part of 1901. Their main offices are in Chicago and their connections have always been of a powerful and profitable character. They succeeded to much of the business of Harris, Gates & company, when that firm dissolved several years ago.

In addition to Chapin and Countiss, the other members are Tracy L. Turner, William L. Ewald, Ira J. Couch and Oliver P. Cooke. The firm's clientele is largely from the west, and its wire connections have made it prominent in the list of commission houses.

FALL FAIR

WILL BE BIGGER AND BETTER THIS YEAR.

Directors Will Meet Next Week and Begin Preliminary Plans

Early preparation for the next fair will be made by the Paducah Fair association, and for this purpose a meeting of the directors and officers will be held next week. Next year it is planned to have the fair bigger and better, and to draw more people to the city by better advertising. The programs for the October fair will be issued in April so that entries may be prepared for the fair.

As far as the racing is concerned the officers intend to co-operate with Mayfield, Paris and Jackson, Tenn., so that dates will not conflict, and have the fairs follow in orderly succession. This will bring more and better horses to this district. Last year there was a break of a week between dates, and many horsemen would not come, owing to the dead expense of the open week.

Better premiums will be offered next year, both for farm products and for the races. The fair last October was the first given by the association and was a good beginning. However, a more successful fair is promised for next October. Already many farmers have made inquiries concerning exhibits and prizes, and the officers are assured that western Kentucky farm products will be represented better than last year.

It takes a lot of courage to enable a woman to admit that she is growing old.

NIGHT SESSION

POLICE JUDGE HEARS CASE TO ACCOMMODATE PRISONERS.

Dycusburg Men Get Into Fight On Steamer J. B. Richardson and Are Arrested.

A night session of police court was held at 8 o'clock last night by Judge Cross, when he tried four countrymen on a breach of the peace charge. Charles Bennett, W. W. Smith, D. M. Martin and C. L. Ferguson, all of Dycusburg, Ky., engaged in a general scrap and Patrolman Stewart was called and hustled two of them to the police station. When a few particulars were learned Patrolmen Cross and Stewart went back after two more of the men. Messieurs of getting out of the trouble as quickly as possible the men asked for an immediate trial. Police long distance variety.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine. Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days.

Judge Cross was called to the city hall and heard the evidence. Bennett and Smith were fined $5 each, while Martin and Ferguson were dismissed.

THE LADIES BAZAAR

Paducah's Leading Ready-to-wear Shop

For Eight Days Only

For Eight Days Only

BEGINNING FRIDAY JANUARY 14TH AND ENDING SATURDAY JANUARY 22ND

317 Broadway, Paducah, Ky.

Make a good start for the New Year by coming to this Mid-Winter Clearance Sale. We are not overloaded, thanks to the ladies of Paducah and vicinity who appreciate bargains in season; but what we have left of our stock we are willing to sell at manufacturers' cost. It is our custom at the end of each season to conduct a sale of this kind for the purpose of clearing our stock, so as not to carry goods over from one season to another. Nothing reserved; everything goes at a big cut in price. Attend this sale, compare with others for the same class of merchandise and you will readily appreciate the wonderful values.

Daily Thought.

Remember this: The moment you feel sorry for yourself nobody else feels sorry for you.

Got the pogonip?

A Rawhide, Nevada, couple are taking a honeymoon at the expense of their wedding guests, who were assessed 50 cents apiece. That's cheaper than most wedding guests escape.

The Henderson Journal says Miss de Janon has been run to earth. First information we have had that she eloped in a flying machine.—Owensboro Enquirer.

Thought she had gone to the devil, perhaps.

President Taft has appointed as Pinchot's successor, Henry S. Graves, one of Pinchot's aides, and director of the Yale school of forestry, a department established at the suggestion of Pinchot. His associate is Albert F. Potter, another of Pinchot's men.

These papers, who are berating Taft for standing by Ballinger and talking of Roosevelt's nobility of character, forget how they berated Roosevelt for standing by Paul Morton. Some people were always surprised at Roosevelt. They will be surprised when he returns to find him deferring President Taft.

While the Illinois legislature is considering a new popular direct primary law, why doesn't it take up the idea of Governor Hughes, of New York, modeled after the federal system, a constitutional amendment providing for the abolition of all elective officers in the executive department, excepting the governor and lieutenant governor?

Kentucky is up to date. The state senate has a band of insurgents that mopped the floor with the rules committee. Senator Eaton was an insurgent and Conn Linn chairman of the rules committee. The issue was a rule, relieving the lieutenant governor, the presiding officer, of the right to refer matters to committees, and placing that power in the hands of the rule committee. The rule was changed.

WATTERSON'S THIRD PARTY.
Democracy extracts little satisfaction from Henry Watterson's comments on national politics of late. He has little use for the Taft administration, but he sees more hope of a third party, uniting the west and south, than of Democracy triumphing. Concluding an editorial yesterday morning on the Ballinger-Pinchot affair, Colonel Watterson says in the Courier-Journal:

"The Courier-Journal has small hopes of a tariff for revenue only through Democratic agencies. As to the reform of the revenue, the Democratic party went to pot under Cleveland. It again went to pot the last session of congress. But, even as Chase and Hamlin, Hale and Trumbull, original Democrats, were required for a successful anti-slavery party, so are Cummins and La Follette, Bristow and Beveridge and Delivered required to make a triumphant anti-subsidy party. To that end we should have to go under the leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. Nobody can foretell what will happen in the public life of America, but all of us know that politics is a strange bedfellow."

Think Mr. Watterson is premature. President Taft has not gone over to the reactionaries. Mr. Taft just now is simply trying to be president and put through congress a program, conforming to his pre-election promises and the Republican national platform pledges. To that end he is devoting all his activities in securing votes, both of the reactionaries and the progressives. Names are nothing and persons little more; it is what they do that counts. If Joe Cannon and Senator Aldrich vote for progressive measures, then they are progressives; and all Colonel Watterson's invective goes for nothing. As to the Ballinger matter—can't he wait until the investigation is over to see what he will see?

For our part we expect to see the Republican party in congress support the administration measures and that will make the whole party progressive. The necessity to call on the president for help against the insurgents places the reactionaries in the power of the president, which gives him the opportunity to compel support of administration measures. We do not see in the present situation a menace for Mr. Taft, but rather an opportunity.

He will be judged by what he accomplishes in the next two years. Then we shall consider Colonel Watterson's prophecy seriously.

TOM LAWSON'S GOLDEN FLEECE.

The Louisville Evening Post, which yesterday published in full the details of Tom Lawson's proposal to fight the tobacco trust with a trust of farmers, today contains a cartoon on the front page, depicting Tom Lawson dazling the eyes of the Kentucky farmer with his "Golden Fleece", and under the picture are the significant words, "who will be deceived?"

Tom will take all the tobacco in the burley pool, which comprises practically the whole Kentucky crop, and will organize the pool into a $50,000,000 corporation with a self-perpetuating board of governors. He will sell $3,000,000 of stock in Kentucky and Tennessee. The balance he will raise in the east. That sounds well. All these schemes by which the needy producer is to corner his own product sound well, and we have no doubt Tom Lawson means to fight the trust. Nay, we have not the slightest reason for believing that Tom Lawson will not make a big fortune out of the scheme. We think he will; but we also think the farmers will lose. We remember Tom's copper transactions. We have the highest admiration for his knowledge of human nature, and this idea of taking advantage of the burley pool is just like Tom. The Earl of Grand Rivers, we call him out here.

It is characteristic of honest men, whose lives have been devoted to fighting stubborn but ingenious vegetation and producing crops out of the soil, to miscalculate the elements that go into the construction and success of great business enterprises founded on the laws of trade. To the uninitiated it appears that the tobacco trust succeeds, because it controls the supply and manufacture of tobacco products; for, since men must have tobacco, they must buy it of the trust. But, they do not consider the slow growth of the subsidiary companies, composing the trust, the competition they had to meet, the financial exigencies they encountered, and the powerful resources of the giant competitor that finally swallowed them up. It requires more than a corner on one crop of Kentucky tobacco to constitute a successful trust. If this was just a scheme to compel the trust to buy out the promoters, we might have faith in it,—and how do the farmers know it is not.

All this is leaving Tom Lawson out of our calculations. With Tom in, the proposition looks still more dubious. Those Blue Grass farmers know just as much about finances and the organization of a corporation, such as is suggested, as Tom Lawson knows about growing tobacco; but when those Boston financiers get the tobacco and the finances both into their hands they will know what to do, or we misjudge them.

PARAGRAPHS ON PINCHOT.

Still, the man who dares the president of the United States to dismiss him from office is so unusual as to present a somewhat refreshing contrast.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Mr. Taft is rather early beginning his housecleaning, but he is making the dust fly, all right.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

No more will Pinchott cause the administration to test its patience by sitting on a red-hot lid.—Atlanta Constitution.

Just as soon as the Pinchot dismissal was announced there was assembled the regular session of the irrepressible "I-told-you-so's."—Washington Times.

If Pinchot had conserved his conversation a little he might have conserved the office.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

STATE PRESS.

Opposes Partisan Change.
The Times believes that the repeal of the law providing for a bi-partisan board of control for the state charitable institutions would be a step backward. In stating this belief The Times does not question the sincerity or good purposes of the author of the bill of repeal, nor the powers as well as the responsibility of the general assembly to act in this matter as it deems best. But slight should not be lost of the fact that the state has given convincing evidence of its confidence in the Democratic party by electing an overwhelmingly Democratic legislature, and the Democratic majority cannot, in justice to itself, afford to permit even the appearance of partisanship in its dealing with questions involving the credit of the state.—Louisville Times.

MINE CONFERENCE ASKED

By Officials of Western District Mine Workers.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 13.—With the mines getting out every pound of coal possible to supply the brisk demand caused by the extreme weather, the officials of the western district, U. M. W. of A., have come to Owensboro to bring about an understanding between the miners and the operators. The mines around Owensboro employ union miners, but do not fully recognize the organization, and have entered into no permanent wage scale. It is to effect this arrangement that President J. T. Main, Vice-President Fred Seyers and National Board Member George Baker are in Owensboro. At a meeting between miners and operators set for Tuesday afternoon the operators did not appear.

work irreparable injury to the party, has unquestionably kept some members now associated with the regulars in a half-hearted way from going over to the insurgent camp.

With the prospect of a continuation of Cannon in public life these lukewarm adherents of the house organization now are ready to withdraw their allegiance and transfer it to those who would reform the methods of doing business in the house of representatives.

In Ohio, Illinois and Indiana the opposition to the speaker is daily gathering force, and some members from these states, now recognized as among the faithful, are expecting to be told to line up with the "insurgents."

There is strife on every hand in the house. It can be said on the best of authority that the loyal members of the house organization are divided because of the inability to get Speaker Cannon out of the way. The members who have strong districts have been urging Mr. Cannon to fight the insurgents to a finish.

The members who represent doubtful districts have been

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Riverside Hospital Shower Tomorrow Afternoon.

The Riverside Hospital League will receive from 2:30 until 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. E. Purcell, 321 North Fifth street. It will be a Miscellaneous Shower, and any gifts that can be utilized for the charity wards of the Riverside hospital will be most welcome to the league. Light refreshments will be served. It will be a pleasant social occasion and the public is most cordially invited to call during the hours.

The league has done a notable work during the past year in aiding the city patients at the hospital and in improving the grounds and adding to the indoor comforts of the hospital. The various committees and their chairmen who have the work in charge are:

Visiting committee, Mrs. James P. Smith, chairman. All visits to the hospital wards are under the direction of this committee, which has done a splendid work during the year.

Committee for Delicacies—Mrs. Ed Hannan, chairman. This committee has kept the hospital generously provided with delicacies for the sick.

Sewing Committee—Mrs. James Baldwin, chairman. Meetings are held to sew for the hospital needs.

House Committee—Mrs. W. J. Gilbert, chairman. Sectional bookcases have been placed in the halls of the hospital through the good work of this committee.

Professional Library Committee—Mrs. Robert Coleman, chairman. Medical books for the use of the nurses are being gathered by this committee.

Literary and Fiction Committee—Mrs. Allen Ashcraft, chairman. Ninety volumes of standard and light literature and a supply of the leading magazines have been secured for the hospital library by this committee.

Clothing Committee—Mrs. H. H. Koegel, chairman. Outfits for infants, bathrobes, kimonos and gowns for the patients are the especial promise of this committee.

Yard Committee—Mrs. John Rock, chairman. This committee has already done a fine work for the hospital grounds and is planning more improvements. A wire fence has been constructed in the rear of the grounds and covered with vines. Five large flower beds, two large vases, ferns, palms, rubber plants, roses and hardy shrubs add much to the beauty of the grounds. The California privet hedge is being used to border the driveway, walks and around the grounds.

The league with the assistance of friends furnished a beautiful Christmas treat to the patients of the hospital. The wards were prettily decorated with evergreens and Christmas bells and on Christmas morning each patient found beside his bed a plate attractively decorated in the Christmas colors and piled high with Christmas cheer. For the Christmas dinner all kinds of fruits, fresh and canned, jellies, pickles, cranberries, turkey, celery, salads, chicken, ice, cakes, candies and other delicacies were contributed.

Enjoyable Surprise Party.

A delightful surprise party was given to Miss Nannie Watkins at her home on Goebel avenue Tuesday night. Games were played and a most pleasant evening spent. Those present were: Misses Bonnie Prince, Nona Chambers, of Kuttawa; Violet Dickey, Eva Dickey, Robbie McIntyre, Eda McIntyre, Ruby Copeland, Bertha McIntosh, Cynthia Rawlinson, Ethel Acree, Willie Burton, Nona Angie, Pearl Watkins, Bessie Mullin, Nannie Watkins, Messrs. "Pogonip," Which Lurks in Fog. Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 13.—Harry Penny Witt, the weather forecaster here, not only dispenses forecasts, but accompanies them with health hints. He came out with a new and rather startling one to the effect that "Pogonip" air was supercharged with "pogonip," and he urged that people out-doors should hang over their mouths and nostrils a little apron of cheesecloth. "Pogonip," he explained, "is Indian for 'white death,' and is caused by inhaling fog which has congealed into spicula of ice."

Charity Euchre Tonight.

city, and made a number of friends here. Mrs. Winstead spent the holidays with her daughter in Thomasville, and will return about January 25. The Times-Enterprise says:

"A very beautiful reception was given by Mrs. J. Fendren Mitchell yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Winstead, of Paducah, Ky., who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John Montgomery, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are occupying the residence of Mr. T. D. Winn while his family are absent in Florida, and it was there that the affair was given."

"The house was charmingly decorated with palms, ferns and bamboo forming a background for the vivid red of the poinsettias which were lavishly used in the rooms and halls."

"Mrs. Mitchell was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. Winstead and Mrs. W. L. Logan, of Gainesville. Among the young ladies who assisted in entertaining and serving the guests were Misses Fraser Mitchell, Nell Pringle, Mary Jerger, Bessie Parker, Alice May Ansley, Helen Bruce, Annie Lou Blackshear and Grace Beach, of Beachton. In the dining room Mrs. L. H. Jerger and Mrs. J. F. Parker poured chocolate and coffee. The decorations in this room were also in red and on the table as a centre piece was a beautiful basket of poinsettias, which with the appointments of cut glass and silver candelabra with red silk shades was very effective. Many guests called during the afternoon to enjoy Mrs. Mitchell's hospitality."

"Pogonip," Which Lurks in Fog. Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 13.—Harry Penny Witt, the weather forecaster here, not only dispenses forecasts, but accompanies them with health hints. He came out with a new and rather startling one to the effect that "Pogonip" air was supercharged with "pogonip," and he urged that people out-doors should hang over their mouths and nostrils a little apron of cheesecloth. "Pogonip," he explained, "is Indian for 'white death,' and is caused by inhaling fog which has congealed into spicula of ice."

Charity Euchre Tonight.

HORSE FROZEN

AUSTIN FINED IN POLICE COURT AND "ADVISED."

Police Are Determined to Stop the Mistreatment of Animals—The Docket.

The police are aroused over the mistreatment of dumb animals as was evidenced in a case in police court this morning, when Tom Austin, colored, was fined $5. All offenders will be arrested, according to Chief Singery, and there are many worn-out horses that should be killed for humanity's sake.

Last Monday John Mercer, colored, swapped a mule for a worn-out horse belonging to Tom Austin. Mercer said Austin gave him $1.50 to boot and agreed that if the horse wouldn't work the trade was to be cancelled. The horse was too weak to pull and Mercer was forced to lead him to his home in the Pines that night. The next morning he took the animal back to Austin's home on North Fourteenth street, but Austin refused to return the mule and Mercer left the horse. Austin turned the horse into the yard Tuesday night and the next morning it was found frozen to death. The heavy snowfall and exposure was more than the horse could stand. Judge Cross advised Austin to turn the mule over to its former owner to save a lawsuit. Both the horse and mule together were not worth more than $5.

Isaac England was held over to the circuit court under $300 bond on a charge of obtaining medicine from Bond's drug store under false pretenses, claiming that he was employed at the time.

Lem Wetherington was dismissed of a charge of housebreaking.

The case against Slick Yeltima charged with breach of the peace, was continued until tomorrow.

Corbet Kelly, 18, and Joseph Laehelle, 20, who were arrested by Patrolmen Stewart and England yesterday on a charge of vagrancy, were ordered to either find employment here or leave town. A judgment of $50 against each was suspended on these conditions.

GOOD HAUL

MADE BY THIEF IN MARCOFFSKY'S SALOON LAST NIGHT.

Thief Carves Hole in Door to Reach Latch and Bites the Tail.

When Abe Marcoffsky closed his saloon at Second street and Kentucky avenue at 11 o'clock last night and went upstairs to retire, an unknown burglar, who had concealed himself in the coal room at the rear of the saloon, waited until all was quiet. Then with an extra sharp knife, the thief carved a hole through the panel of the door that separates the saloon from the room. Making a hole large enough to admit his arm, the thief poked his hand through it and raised the latch.

Then on his tiptoes he made for the bar, ransacked two cash drawers and the cash register and stuffed $118 in bills, silver and pennies in his trousers. Going to the side door he lifted the bar, unlocked the door and emerged into the darkness on Kentucky avenue, closing the door behind him.

The discovery was made about 4:30 o'clock this morning when Mr. Marcoffsky went down to open his place of business. Every cent was gone from the drawers. The money consisted of about $50 in paper, $3 in pennies and the rest in silver.

The iron safe near the bar was untouched. The proprietor at once began a search and found how the robber had planned his work. Every door in the saloon had been locked before Mr. Marcoffsky went to bed. In his opinion the thief was someone who was familiar with the place, but the police have no clue so far that would lead to his detection.

S.S.S. FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation; a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. The disease is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which comes from indigestion, weak kidneys, constipation, and other irregularities of the system. This uric acid produces an inflamed and acid condition of the blood, and the circulation, instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the irritating and pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Then follow the painful and torturing symptoms of Rheumatism. We do not claim for S. S. S. that it is anything more than a first class blood purifier, and that is just what is needed to cure Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause of Rheumatism. S. S. S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, causing pain and agony throughout the system, it becomes an invigorating, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and vigor to every portion of the body, and permanently relieving the suffering caused by Rheumatism. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and will not injure the most delicate system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

GROWTH OF THE RURAL ROUTES

MAIL HANDLED FISCAL YEAR 96 PER CENT OVER 1905.

Immediate Advantage Taken of Rural Delivery, for Installation Is Followed by Increase.

AMOUNT HANDLED BY REPORT

Washington, Jan. 13.—An increase of 96 per cent in the amount of mail handled by rural delivery routes during the fiscal year ended June 30, last, over the fiscal year 1905, is shown in the annual report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General P. V. Degraw, which was transmitted to the postmaster general. Degraw says that "the installation of the rural delivery, as a rule, has been followed by an increase in the amount of mail delivered and collected within the territories respectively covered by that service."

During the last fiscal year the total expenditures on the rural free delivery were $35,661,034, an increase over the previous year of $1,289,095. The revenue derived from dead mail matter for the year amounted to $29,234. The report says in part:

Growth of the Service.

"The number of petitions for rural delivery service filed during the past fiscal year aggregated 3,376, a decrease of 688 from the previous year. Of the petitions filed 2,108 have been accepted for investigation, and 361 are still under consideration."

"On June 30, 1909, the service was in operation on 40,628 routes, and 40,499 carriers were employed. On 667 routes the service was tri-weekly, an increase of 8 as compared with the previous year."

"During the year 1,415 new routes were established; 4 routes discontinued prior thereto were re-established, and 63 routes were discontinued, leaving the net increase in the number of routes in operation 1,351. The number of new routes established is 257 less than were established during the previous fiscal year."

"During the earlier years this increase was gradual, as a whole. In order to ascertain the percentage of mail carried on rural delivery routes, a count was kept during the months of March, April and May, and taken as a basis of conservative calculation, which showed that rural carriers throughout the United States handled during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1909, the enormous bulk of 7,232,262,000 pieces. During the four years succeeding June 30, 1905, the number of routes advanced 20 per cent, but the increase in the amount of mail delivered was 87 per cent, and mail collected 151 per cent, or an increase of 96 per cent in the whole amount handled. There was an increase of 149 per cent in the number of money orders issued, and 91 per cent increase in the number of letters registered. In 1905 the average number of pieces of mail handled per route per month was 3,600. Based upon the count kept during March, April and May mentioned, the average number of pieces now handled per month is 5,600—the largest in the history of the service. Another significant fact is that on only 2,117, or 5.2 per cent, of the rural routes was the quantity of mail handled less than 9,000 pieces per quarter, which is considered a fair average for a standard route."

"Additional evidence of the increase in the amount of mail passing through rural delivery is furnished in the fact that 932 routes handled 25,000 or more pieces of mail during the three months ended June 30, 1907, and 3,232 routes 25,000 or more during the three months ended May 31, 1909."

"In 1907 twenty-seven routes handled more than 50,000 pieces of mail during the quarter ended May 31. On 35 of these routes the value of the stamps on mail collected for the period indicated exceeded $200. On 24 routes this item exceeded the carrier's salary."

Your Neighbors Can Tell You

No doubt, if you yourself don't know, of many marvelous cures of Stomach, Liver, Blood and Skin affections that have been made by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for it has a most successful record of over 40 years.

These CURES embrace also many bad cases of Weak Lungs, lingering Coughs, Bronchial, Throat and Lung affections, some of which, no doubt, would have run into Consumption, had they been neglected or badly treated. We don't mean to say that the "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure Consumption when fully seated, but it will strengthen weak lungs, improve digestion, and make pure, rich, red blood thereby overcoming and casting out disease-producing bacteria and giving robust, vigorous health.

CAPTAIN KOGER

RE-ELECTED GENERAL MANAGER OF PACKET COMPANY.
St. Louis and Tennessee Company Makes No Changes In Its Officials.

Captain James Koger has been re-elected vice-president and general manager of the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet Company for another year. Yesterday Captain Koger returned from St. Louis where he attended a meeting of the company, when all officers were re-elected.

Isaac T. Rhea, of Nashville, is president and John E. Massengale, of St. Louis, is secretary, treasurer and traffic manager. They, with Capt. Lee Howell of Evansville, Ind., and T. S. Hughes, of Clifton, Tenn., comprise the board of directors.

Captain Koger, whose headquarters are at Paducah on the wharfbank, has been general manager and vice-president of the company since its organization in 1887 and his services have proven him worthy and capable. It is a very responsible position and Capt. Koger's long term in this capacity reflects much honor in his re-election.

At the meeting at St. Louis the report of the secretary and treasurer showed that last year's business was the best in the history of the packet company. The outlook for 1910, is more encouraging and an increase in the large amount of business over last year is the outlook.

FOR SIX MONTHS

PROGRAMS OF MEDICAL SOCIETY WILL BE ARRANGED.

Interesting Meeting Held Last Night By Physicians at Woman's Club.

An interesting meeting of the McCracken County Medical Society was held at the Woman's club last night. Before adjournment a committee composed of Drs. Delia Caldwell, P. H. Stewart, Vernon Blythe, was appointed to outline the program for the meeting for the ensuing six months. The meetings will be modeled after those of the American Medical Society's program and adapted to local use.

Last night Dr. Caldwell read a paper on the subject of "The Anatomy of the Pelvic Organs," while Dr. Stewart read one on "Inflammation of the Uterus." A report was made of the recent lecture given here by Dr. Dunning S. Wilson, of Louisville, but no steps were taken in regard to the work of the anti-tuberculosis society.

CHAPTER IV.

THE declaration of the new owner of the Advance that he was no less a personage than the blacklist victim of years back created the sensation that would a cannon shot in the dreary solitude of the sylvan dells of Arcady. Dupuy felt back as though struck by a violent blow. And, indeed, he and his interests would have every reason to believe, he now knew full well, that they had in all truth a new enemy to combat, an enemy that would cost them dearly if he were to be vanquished.

"You—you are Jerry Nolan, and you own the Advance?" the lawyer cried chokingly. "What are we coming to next?" he finally managed to say after a desperate effort to calm himself.

Jerry Nolan, for none other than the old time strike leader it was, enriched by his mining operations in the rock ribbed Nevada hills, thrilled with the realization that he was now in a position to strike terror into the hearts and souls of those who had attempted to destroy him and his loved ones. He knew that he had in his power the men who had almost succeeded in their designs against him twelve years before.

McHenry, at first even more puzzled than Dupuy and who was bending forward, with an expression of deepest interest and concern implanted on his features, began to understand the situation more clearly when he heard his new employer say in a voice that pulsed with determination:

"Yes, Ed Dupuy, I am Jerry Nolan, and I am back in the old town to pay my respects to my friends and—and—"

His voice shook—"to my enemies."

The whole truth now dawned upon the amazed McHenry and also upon Dupuy, who had been dealing with men long enough to know that his only successful pose at the present momentous time would be a conciliatory one. He must at all hazards smooth over this dangerous factor in the city's affairs, the returned Jerry Nolan, and persuade him that he was now his friend.

"Well, well," Dupuy began ingratiatingly, simulating a sickly smile, "this is a most interesting meeting—most interesting, indeed." He laughed at one side, witnessed with a distinct shock what he understood as Nolan's sudden resolve to do as Dupuy had suggested, let "bygones be bygones," else why should he shake hands with the man? Dupuy also felt a thrill of pleasure, even of triumph, as the one time chairman of the Street Railway Workers' union warmly shook his hand. Dupuy smiled and, bowing pleasantly, essayed to withdraw his hand from Nolan's grip and step away. But his smile turned to a wrinkled contraction of his facial muscles, indicating acute pain. The giant hand of the ex-striker, ex-miner, was closing with crushing force around the lawyer lobbyist's fingers and knuckles. It did not cease to crush, try as Dupuy might to wrest his hand free. At the moment when he felt that he must scream in his pain or else cringingly plead for mercy Nolan's grip partially relaxed, and he swung Dupuy to one side. A grim smile made its way into the furrows, won by suffering and privation in the Nevada mining camps and desolate gold regions, that marked Nolan's visage.

"You see, I'm stronger than you now, Ed Dupuy, just as you was stronger than me twelve years ago—you and Bartelmy between you." A great sigh escaped him as he finished.

Dupuy, now having freed his hand, rubbed it smartly with the other to restore the circulation to the fattened veins. He wheeled away to pick up his overcoat.

Nolan now addressed McHenry, who had seated himself at his desk.

"You're the managing editor?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, I just want to tell you that that was a true article you had about that old hypocrite, Judge Bartelmy, this morning," he started to McHenry.

"Have another tomorrow and stronger."

"Another idea came to him, and he added, 'Who was it got up that one today?'"

Dupuy felt that he must come to McHenry's rescue.

"A young man who has since resigned," he interjected for the managing editor. Both McHenry and Dupuy were growing uneasy at the trend of Nolan's thoughts and words. A glimpse into the cranial of them both at this moment would have revealed the same thought to be predominating: "What is he driving at?"

Nolan appeared distinctly surprised at two things—first, that the writer of the story had resigned; second, that Dupuy should be so familiar with the matter. He took a step toward the latter.

"Resigned?" he asked in reverberating tones. "How do you know?" Before Dupuy could answer Nolan wheeled on McHenry. "Is it so, what Dupuy says?" he asked of the managing editor.

"Yes, sir."

"What's his name?"

"Wheeler Brand."

"What did he resign for?"

"Some of the big advertisers forced him to," admitted McHenry calmly.

A look of understanding flitted across Nolan's face. He shifted his glance from McHenry to Dupuy. Then, with a significant smile, he said:

"I see you are still on the job, Ed."

discouragement that assailed him and for a moment or two threatened to overwhelm. "Discharged for 'beating' the town on the story of the year," he muttered. "Well, I'll try to get on across the street," he concluded, "across the street" meaning the Guardian, the bitter rival of the Advance. He went to one of the long oak tables in the city room, where he seated himself next to Higgins, the leading police reporter of the paper, and began nervously to finish the story of a new bank merger on which he had been working when summoned by McHenry. When he finished he laid the pages of copy on the city editor's desk. He dragged a chair to a window, sat down and gazed moodily down at the crowds of people hurrying along the street below.

It was not his dismissal from the staff which chiefly concerned him. He was certain of obtaining another position. In fact, his reputation along Newspaper row was such, and he felt justifiable pride at the thought, that he would be at work within twenty minutes after leaving the Advance office if he so desired. But what did occupy his mind to the exclusion of almost everything else was the consideration of what view Judith Bartelmy would take when she heard the news of his dismissal. She had warned him that he was sacrificing his future in his attacks on the powers that be. Undoubtedly now she would be convinced, as some of his friends had already endeavored to convince her, that, after all, he was a fanatic, an impractical dreamer, who could not accomplish his ambition to right what he believed to be great wrongs, who could not, moreover, escape summary dismissal from his paper. But he must go on. He would go on. He would go to that very night to a newspaper that would not suppress nor qualify the truth, one that would not distort facts nor misrepresent a situation in order to deceive the public, to which it was its duty to give the truth. Yes, and he would show the big thieves of the city that even if they managed to remain superior to the law at least they could not remain superior to public opinion. The time had come when—

"Wheeler Brand! Wheeler Brand!" The voice of Nolan came to his ears above the ticking of the telegraph instruments and the clicking of typewriter keys. Brand started from his seat. He did not recognize the voice, nor did any one else in the smoky city room, as curious upraised faces around him testified. It came from the managing editor's room, however, so he hastened to respond, wondering what it could mean.

Brand entered McHenry's office and faced the three men, his surprise increasing as he saw from the attitudes of McHenry and Dupuy that a huge, rawboned, bronzed faced stranger apparently dominated the situation.

"Yes?" said Brand inquiringly to the stranger, whom he placed as the owner of the voice, because he knew it had not been McHenry's or Dupuy's.

"I am Nolan, the new owner," greeted the stranger.

Brand stepped forward and offered his hand, which Nolan grasped.

"How do you do, Mr. Nolan?" the reporter greeted him, endeavoring to figure just what the mysterious proceeding portended.

Nolan went straight to the point. "So you've been fired for that Bartelmy article, have you?" he asked.

"Yes, sir."

Nolan turned and shot a triumphant glare at McHenry and Dupuy. Then he said:

"From now on you sit here."

He caused the blood to rush almost blindly into the head of the young reporter when he swung around, grasped Brand's arm, drew him over to the managing editor's chair, beside which that official was standing, and said, "Well, I've got another job for you." Nolan put both hands on Brand's shoulders and by main strength forced him down heavily into the chair. "From now on you sit here," he announced. "You're managing editor now."

SENATE PASSES DENEEN'S BILL

PROVIDING THAT BONDS BE ISSUED FOR WATERWAY.

Hard Sailing Certain For This Measure in House, Where Lorimer Has Many Friends.

WOULD WAIT FOR FEDERAL AID

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13.—Senator Schmidt's deep waterway bill, which is the Deneen measure, passed the senate by a vote of 28 to 16. The bill provides that the bond issue of $20,000,000, authorized by the people at the general election in 1908, shall be issued and that the work of constructing a deep waterway from Lake Michigan to the Illinois river shall proceed without waiting for federal aid. The bill will have a fight in the house where Senator Lorimer's friends, who want nothing done until federal aid is secured, are stronger than in the senate.

The senate advanced to third reading the Oglesby direct plurality primary election bill, changed so as to meet the requirement of the supreme court by providing that voters shall decide how many members of the lower house they will nominate for cumulative voting and for the registration by affidavit of voters in cities which have election commissioners.

Lieutenant Governor Oglesby grumbled down all amendments to the bill, and it will pass.

The house committee of fifteen at 11:30 o'clock decided to report out the Staymates, Democrat, direct primary election bill, but loaded down with amendments. A minority of the committee will report out the bill of Representative Walter Lantz, Democrat.

BANK PRESIDENT

W. F. BRADSHAW, JR., TIPPED FOR POSITION.

Likely to Head Mechanics and Farmers' Savings Bank of This City.

Attorney William F. Bradshaw, Jr., is tipped for president of the Mechanics and Farmers' Savings bank to succeed Mr. B. H. Scott, whose illness prevents him from attending to the duties as president. The directors will meet next Tuesday for the purpose of electing officers for the bank. It is also said that if elected to the presidency of the bank, Mr. Bradshaw will accept. Mr. Bradshaw is one of the most prominent of the younger lawyers of the city, and if elected, will make the youngest bank president in the city.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature graying, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert, Special Agent.

LAWSON FASTENS HOLD ON BURLEY

AFTER LENGTHY CONFERENCE
AGREEMENT IS MADE.

Society is to Be Managed By Self-
Perpetuating Governors—Fifty Million Dollars

PROJECT OF THE FINANCIER

Louisville, Jan. 13.—That all the essentials to the formation of a $50,000,000 company to manufacture and market the entire holdings of the Burley Tobacco society have been agreed upon by members of the executive committee of the Burley society and Thomas W. Lawson, promoter of the new company, was the declaration made last night by W. W. Davis, attorney and personal representative of the eastern capitalist and financier in the impending tobacco deal, following a meeting held in Lexington yesterday.

Mr. Davis returned to Louisville from Lexington late last night, after having been in conference with Mr. Lawson and officials of the burley pool, and his statements that an agreement had been reached whereby Mr. Lawson secures exclusive control of the financial end of the plan, having gained the consent of the burley officials to go east and get the necessary capital, is said to bear the sanction of both Mr. Lawson and the burley officials.

Gives Attorney Draft.

Before leaving Lexington, Mr. Davis said he placed in the hands of Col. John R. Allen, attorney for the pool, a rough draft of the agreement between the society and new company. He declared that all the provisions contained in this agreement had previously been talked over by Mr. Lawson and officials of the society, and agreed to. The provisions and articles were then put into writing. He declared that they might formally be passed upon by the Burley society.

The new company, said Mr. Lawson's representative, is assured, and will have a paid-up capital of not less than $20,000,000. He declared the company will prove a formidable opponent to the American Tobacco company, and will be proof against all efforts to gain control of its management.

The stock of the company will have no voting power, and will bear interest of 6 per cent. In this respect, it is said, the stock will be like a savings bank certificate, and its only value will be for the interest. This precaution was taken, it was declared to obviate any chance of capitalists directly or indirectly concerned in the American Tobacco company obtaining a controlling interest in the corporation.

Governed By Board.

Another important feature of the company, which is said to be already informally agreed upon by members of the pool and Mr. Lawson, is that the governing power shall be vested in a board of governors, a majority of whom may be appointed by the Burley society, officials of that corporation even being allowed to serve on the board of governors of the company.

Mr. Davis declared that Mr. Lawson had gone to Boston to make final arrangements for getting the $20,000,000 of capital he has pledged himself to obtain. He said that Mr. Lawson had also pledged himself to dispose of between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 of the stock in Kentucky and Tennessee, and would put men in the field to sell it.

Lawson Will Buy.

Mr. Lawson himself, said Mr. Davis, will take several million dollars' worth of stock, and anticipate no trouble in placing any and all shares that may be issued.

That several large eastern capitalists are interested in the scheme, and are ready to put up their money is also vouched for by the representative of Mr. Lawson. He refused to divulge the names of these men last night, however, saying that were their names to be made public, the opposition "interests" could make it uncomfortable for them in a business way, and might cause some delay in getting the necessary money from the banks.

These men have long been familiar with the working plan of the proposed company, it is said, and long before the Burley society was approached had listened to the plans of Mr. Lawson and had, after careful consideration, declared them to be absolutely practical. These men, says Mr. Davis, place implicit faith in the judgment of Mr. Lawson and are ready to back him up in any agreement he may reach with the officials of the tobacco pool.

BUTTER AND EGGS ARE SOARING HIGH

FEEDSTUFF CARRIES THEM TO GREAT ALTITUDE.

Oats, Corn, Bran and Hay Are Sky-pilots of the Kitchen Supplies.

RECORD IS SOON EXPECTED.

Aviation contests are on in Paducah between eggs, butter and meat, and the advance in the price of milk is correspondingly soaring for a record in altitude. Feedstuffs have also mounted the "right" aeroplane and a dealer declared this morning that the prices for oats, corn, bran and hay will increase. Coal has increased two cents on the bushel and it is the general opinion that most of us are cooking less and eating less than we enjoyed several months ago.

Eggs probably are ascending to the loftiest skies and today they are selling for just 4½ cents a dozen. Grocers here say that they are selling fewer eggs and most of the sales are less than a dozen. If a dozen eggs are worth 40 cents the housewife is probably figuring in decimals to determine what one egg costs. One egg costs only 3 1/3 cents and you can't talk them down to two for a nickel. Eggs are scarce and fresh eggs are scarce. The egg famine has really reached an acute stage and most people are making out with but them.

Butter is selling for 25 cents a pound although in some rare instances marketeers today bought it cheaper and some paid more than this. Butter is going to be higher and milk is coming right along on the same stretch. In the last few days milk dealers raised the price of sweet milk from 5 to 10 cents a quart, while butter milk is now selling for 5 cents a quart and is said to be preparing for a jump. Citizens look for the price of sweet milk to take another jump before long.

Feedstuff Is Up.

Coming right down to the real cause of these high prices is the high price of feedstuffs. All have taken a balloon ascension and from the present outlook they will remain aloft for some time to come. Bran is selling wholesale for $1.35 per hundred pounds and is the scarcest of all feed. Hay is wholesaling at 95 cents per hundred, this being an increase of 25 cents in two weeks. Corn and oats are also rising correspondingly. Today oats were bought by retailers at 58 cents a bushel, having increased in price three cents in only a few days. On the other hand corn sold for 78 cents a bushel, this price being 10 cents higher than has been paid.

Hog prices have been shoved upward and butchers are paying between 9 and 11 cents for pork on foot. By the time the meat is prepared for sale the consumer has to dig deep into his pocket before he can make a purchase. However, the meat market is unsettled at present. Butchers are uncertain as to whether there will be a scarcity of meat, but now there is plenty. Should it become scarcer the poor consumer would become a vegetarian for the time being. Beef is selling for 9 cents and you are compelled to pay fifteen cents for the choicest. That is the reason most people are fuming over the tough meat they get. Veal is retailing at from 6 to 11 cents.

What a glorious country this! People who take pains to tell the would be to live in it if turkeys were truth on all occasions have but few as easily raised as cats!
